“ We have the family in our thoughts and prayers at this time. Aunt Pat was a wonderful person. She was willing to do for others and always lots of fun to be with. When we were growing up she used to sew matching clothes for her sister, Judy and me. Was not able to spend time with her in our grown up years but she will be missed.....thought of her ofen. Love and prayer to all.

“ This is just one of my memories...One very hot summer day when I was about 6 years old an idea popped in my head that my friend and I could go swimming at my Aunt Pat's house. (I was sneaking and didn't ask my Mom cause I knew she would say NO) We grabbed our suit and towel and walked over to her house (too far for a 6 yr. old) and when Pat answered the door we said that our Mom's said we could swim. She smiled and said YES you can swim!! We stayed for a little while but little did I know...she was on the phone with my Mom the whole time. When I got home I was Busted! She taught me a little lesson that day...
