

Patricia Frances Cole DeArmit

September 26, 1932 - December 4, 2017

Age 85.

Pat was born in Detroit, Michigan, on September 26, 1932 during the great depression. She passed at age 85, on December 4, 2017 following complications from a fall after battling Alzheimers for the last several years. Pat resided in a senior group home with a four other ladies in Madison Heights.

The daughter of Francis Cole and Eleanor Radke, Pat was pre-deceased by her late husband, US Army veteran and Johnny's Pizza (located in Hamtramck, MI) founder Johnny DeArmit.

Pat was Frank and Eleanor's last surviving child. She joins brother Tom and sisters Shirley (Mickey) and Joyce as well as her parents and husbands Fred and Marcel, in the afterlife.

Aunt Pat was the beloved god-mother of sister Shirley's first child, Tom Barwin, and a continuous presence in the lives of her many nieces and nephews including Jeff, Dave, Carey, and Ken Barwin; Jamie and Jennifer Isrow; Johnny, Jimmy and Cathy Cole; and Corey and Timmy Mysztura. She is also survived by many great and great-great nieces and nephews as well as sister-in-law Phyliss Cole.

Disabled from her 19 year career at Federal Mogul – Bower Bearings - with a back injury, Pat remained close to her family her entire life spent primarily in Detroit, Hamtramck, Warren, and finally Madison Heights, Michigan. She helped her husband as he operated Johnny's Pizza for many years. Pat always enjoyed walking the mall with her sister Shirley, going out to lunch, (or any meal), crocheting afghans, reading, and playing cards.

A quiet and discreet person by nature Patricia Cole DeArmit, who never learned to drive, always welcomed the opportunity to spend time with family as often as possible. Her favorite thing was to go out to eat, which she always volunteered to pay for.

She will be missed and she will be remembered fondly.
