“ I was a high school friend of Donna's and spent many hours at the Raeb house in the 1980s. Those days remain some of my favorite childhood memories. I remember Mrs. Raeb coming home after a full day of work and still having the patience, energy, and genuine interest to sit down and ask how everyone was doing. She had a no-nonsense approach to life, a quiet strength, and a caring presence that made an impression on everyone around her.

My heartfelt condolences to Donna, Don, Kathy, Cheryl, and the entire Raeb family. You have lost a beautiful mother, and the world has lost a remarkable woman. Her kindness, strength, and example left a lasting mark on so many people, and I feel fortunate to have known her.
