“ Dr. Dzul was a kind and well respected man with a heart of gold, and I had the privilege of working for him for 7 years. I remember, fondly, breakfast at The Pancake House with "PJ". May his memory be eternal.

“ A gentleman and a scholar. He scared me to death when I first worked for him. I bless the day we went toe to toe and he hugged me. He was a man with a deep heart.

There could be no better example of a life well lived than that of Dr.Dzul. He not only was devoted to his profession but he also was a man who kept alive the history and customs of his Ukrainian Heritage. I have to say that I have never known such an amazing human being who taught me so much over the years about being grateful for Gods' blessings and facing challenges of life. He will be missed beyond measure. Rest in peace my dear friend.
