

Paul Edward Killom

May 30, 1943 - August 20, 2022

Paul Edward Killom

Born May 30, 1943

Called to heaven August 20, 2022

79 years young

Loving father of Lorraine Maguire, Cari Stout, Emily Blain, and Ellen Andrade Cherished Granddaddy of Jeremy Bennett, Peter Maguire, Makenzie Blain
(John), Ryan (Sarah) Maguire, Zachary Bennett, Brendan Blain (Tate), Avery
Blain, Maddie Grace, Caden, Ava Claire, and Anderson Wooldridge.

Paul was born on May 30, 1943 to Ethan Allen and Clara Nell in Shreveport, Louisiana. He is preceded in death by his parents and older brother Don Killom.

He enjoyed preaching, fishing with his grandkids and watching their sporting events, Neil Diamond, and football...especially the Alabama Crimson Tide...
ROLL TIDE! He loved to eat, whether it was chocolate chip cookies, donuts, burgers or the delicious spinach pie from Olgas kitchen. Paul taught at Macomb College and Mt. Clemens High school, he was also a minister and preached at the Metro church of Christ for many years.

Paul was a man of many phrases and had the most contagious laugh. If you knew him you have probably heard at least one of them.... “Whoa John!”

“Holy Christmas!” “Good Gussie” “2 pigs fighting in a sack” “its colder than a well diggers butt in Montana” or his most famous one his grandkids would say “AFFFLAAACCC”.

Paul brought joy and laughter to all he met and loved nothing more than spending time with family. He will be greatly missed.
