“ My mom was the heart of our family — strong, loving, generous, and endlessly supportive. She taught me through her actions what kindness, resilience, and unconditional love truly mean. Whether through her comforting words, her laughter, or the way she always put others before herself, she made everyone around her feel cared for.

As her son, I was blessed not only to be raised by her, but to know her as a remarkable person. She celebrated my successes, carried me through difficult times, and never stopped believing in me. The lessons she gave me will stay with me for the rest of my life.

We will miss you MOM !

“ Where does one begin? Mom was a special kind of human...one you don't come upon every day. She was patient, kind, never got mad, never cursed. The glass was always half full and if it wasn't, there was hope. Hope that it could be. Her humble beginnings made her a strong woman. She was admirable in so many ways. Too many to count. I will miss the one liners that were at the core of who she truly was. "The past is the past, the present is a gift." "I have to use a walker...but at least I can walk." At 97+ years old, she still loved to play euchre. She said "I'm not sure I remember how to play."...and then? She would win. And trust me, Jim and I did not 'let her' win. I Pray that she is whole again. Pain free. Enjoying Heaven. Love you to the moon and back my dear mother-in-law! Until we meet again....Jane

“ Arnie & myself always went by Aunt Peggy to play pinochle. Aunt Peggy would always have a coffee cake, chips and we always had a beer. We talked and laughed. We enjoyed it so much. On Fridays we would go and listen to music. Aunt Peggy would clap her hands and sometimes sing. I enjoyed being with her and will miss her.
