

Petar Petrovich

August 23, 1962 - January 8, 2025

Petar Petrovich, age 62. Loving father of Kosta Kasey Petrovich and Krystle Petrovich. Beloved son of the late Milan and the late Milica Petrovich. Loving brother of Olga (Mile) Mitich and Grozda Petrovich. Dearest uncle of Danny (Jennifer) Stameski, Valerie Maksimoski and Miki Mitich. Loving cousin, Kum and friend to so many. Born to immigrant parents from Vratnica, who like many others, migrated to the USA for a better life. They settled in Wyandotte, MI, where Pete was born, and the family ran a bakery business for 36 years. Pete worked in the family business while also pursuing a college degree. He also learned to play the accordion and became a popular local musician for over 2 decades where he played at community events, weddings, picnics and parties. He may not have known it, but he was referred to as the “best-looking harmunikas”. Pete loved his family and friends with passion. He was younger than his sisters, who he must have found bossy and annoying, but he always loved the song “we are family, I got all my sisters and me”. Being a father to Kasey and Krystle was his greatest joy in life. He selflessly juggled pursuing his education, music jobs and keeping the family business running. He took care of his parents when they became elderly and always extended a helping hand to anyone in need. This wonderful man has left us way to soon and will be greatly missed.
