“ Phil we had a lot of good times growing up. It was always nice doing things with you. I always loved your family. Your mom, dad, Vince & Pam all made me feel like family. Anytime I ate a Vivio's I really enjoyed the food. Even though we didn't hang out at the very end I always thought of you throughout my life. When my day comes I'll definitely be looking for you. You've always been a great friend. I'll miss you!!! God bless!!!

“ Where does one begin? Met Phil in Junior High, watched when Team USA near the Russians together, he had the biggest speakers I could ever imagine as a teen, went to my first concert at Masonic Temple to see Van Halen, built many campfires in the middle of Butcher Woods, etc etc etc.

Phil was a great guy and although it has been many many years since we saw each other, I have very fond memories of him and our early years hanging out together along side of JG (Joe Gennero).
