

Quentin Gehrke

February 16, 1935 - April 29, 2026

Quentin Moore Gehrke, age 91, of Shelby Township, Michigan, passed away peacefully on April 29, 2026, leaving behind a legacy of love, strength, and devotion to family. Born on February 16, 1935, in Detroit, Michigan, Quentin was the son of Bessie Blair and Charles Gehrke. He spent his life rooted in the community he called home and was known for his strong work ethic, kindness, and dedication to those he loved. Quentin dedicated 40 years of hard work and commitment to Chrysler, where he built a respected career before retiring.

He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Susan Jane Gehrke, who passed away on September 16, 2012. Their bond was one of deep love and partnership that endured throughout their lives. He is survived by his loving children: Vicky (Bill) Gehrke-Turner, Fritz Gehrke, and Darrin Gehrke (Adele Lynn Hart-Clum). Quentin was a cherished grandfather to Jill Gehrke-Turner (Rob Forbes), Stephanie Gehrke-Turner (Dustin Smith), Trevor Gehrke-Turner, and the late Alyssa Gehrke. He also leaves behind his treasured great-granddaughters, Skyela Gehrke-Forbes (Jason Famy) and Alicia McGuire, who brought him great joy. He is also survived by his beloved godson, Chris Neumann (Lisa), and leaves behind many loving nieces and nephews who will cherish his memory.

Quentin will be remembered for his steady presence, his dedication to his family, and the simple pleasures he enjoyed—especially his time spent at the casino. A memorial service to celebrate Quentin's life will be held at a later date. Quentin's memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him. He will be deeply missed and forever remembered

Tribute Wall

TA

“ Dave and I moved away years ago but I still remember the last time we were together at our going away party. I've missed our family poker games. Sorry about that 4 of a kind. 🥺 ”

---

Trish Ashworth - May 06 at 05:29 PM