

Randall Klee

July 9, 1963 - August 6, 2025

Randall B. Klee was a devoted born-again Christian whose unwavering faith in Jesus Christ guided every aspect of his life. He shared the message of the Gospel of Christ with everyone he met and lived his life as a testimony to God's grace.

He was a beloved husband, father, son, brother, uncle, and friend. Randall is survived by his loving wife, Mini Joseph-Klee, and their cherished children, Randall Alexander Klee II and Isabella Grace Marie Klee. He was the treasured son of Louise Rossi Klee and the late Bernard C. Klee.

Randall leaves behind his sisters Sonia (Mike), Julie (Bob), and Terri, as well as many nieces and nephews: Rachael (Jeff), Derek, Amanda, Bonnie (Mike), Nicole (Rob), Heather (Michael), and great-nieces and nephews: Nicholas, Jacob, Thomas, Joseph, Lucas, Noah, Olivia, Jackson, Joshua, Jonathan, Michael, and Gabriella.

He is also survived by his in-laws: Manoj (Jaya) Joseph, Kimberly (Raoul) Williams, nephews Emmanuel Nathan Williams, Juilienn (Kylie) Williams, and Gavin (Jessica) Gilmet, niece Hannah Joseph, great-nephew Amir, great-niece Ivory, and his mother-in-law Mariamma Joseph.

Randall was preceded in death by his father Bernard C. Klee, his sister Bonita

Jean, his father-in-law P.S. Joseph, grandparents Joseph and Beulah Klee and Arcangelo and Teresa Rossi, niece Ashley Marie Joseph, and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Professionally, Randall had over 30 years of experience in the insurance services industry. He started his career with Prudential, moved on to MONY and has been with Equitable Advisors since 2005. Known for his leadership and outstanding client service, Randall received numerous industry honors, including the National Quality Award and National Sales Achievement Award. He was a Life Underwriter Training Council Fellow (LUTCF) and a life member of the Million Dollar Round Table (MDRT), a distinction reserved for top-tier professionals in the field.

Randall was deeply committed to his community. He was active in several professional and faith-based organizations, including the Birmingham Bloomfield Chamber, the Troy and Rochester Chambers of Commerce, the Sunrise Networking Group, Christian Business Round Table, Band of Brothers, and Truth at Work. He was warmly welcomed by the local Asian community, often participating in their events and gatherings.

Randall's legacy is one of faith, integrity, generosity, and love for both God and others. His presence will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him. Randall was a faithful member of Woodside Bible Church.
