“ It was always uncle Ray. He always had a smile, a funny story, and a positive friendly thought. I can not ever remember him as sarcastic or mean. Ray will definitely be missed. He brought the sunshine into a room when he walked in.

“ Ray and I worked together for almost 38 years. I think I spent MORE time with Ray than with my wife! 😊 We shared many common interests (and 'dry' sense of humor) and were considered inseparable by our fellow toolmakers. We spent countless hours over a chess board, (it was probably 3 YEARS before I won my first game against him). He cut me no slack, but I constantly improved. I learned so very much from Ray, even though he was only 12 years my senior. He had such a varied experience before becoming the very first toolmaker hired at the 'new' Chrysler Sterling Stamping plant! I transferred there from Warren Stamping as an apprentice and owe a huge debt to Ray for his patient instruction. He will be missed and remembered well!
