“ My most treasured memory of Rhonda is that she always believed in me. No matter what the request was she always believed in my creativity and resourcefulness to make it wonderful. Rhonda challenged and encouraged me to elavate my art form. Rhonda touch so many other people's lives with that same "you can do it" attitude that we are all better for knowing her.

“Rhonda was special. Dare I say extraordinary... How do I describe the most selfless person I know? How do I explain the multitude of ways she made me better, or how she never missed an opportunity to encourage me, tell me she loved me or supported what I was doing? She was always my first text on my birthday and on every holiday sending well wishes. She was there for my 3 children too. She made them feel special and loved.

How do I begin to recount the dozens of people she helped, the people she inspired, the lives she touched? This is a woman who donated her time and talents to help the less fortunate, because she felt called to do so. “How can I help you?” I can’t be the only person who heard Rhonda say those words over and over again – no expectation of anything in return. She loved to help others is an understatement. To call her a ‘giver’ doesn’t do her justice. Giving was simply part of her nature, a portion of her soul.

Rhonda was a mother, a daughter, a sister, a wife, my best friend, a woman of faith, a defender of those in need, a fighter, and someone I can honestly say made me better. She tried with all her heart to stay for them, but God called her, and she had to go. She fought a courageous battle graciously with dignity, strength and perseverance and was an inspiration to all who knew her. I am better for having known this beautiful soul. I will always miss her. When we love people it’s so comforting to know that they will always be with us in our hearts.

I’ll see you again girlfriend. You were a treasure, my friend.

“ *Our dear Rhonda so miss you already! You were the sweetest, most gracious lady ever! We never heard you say a bad word about anyone. Always giving of yourself, finding nice things to do for everyone even in your time of suffering. What great memories we have of you., the last being our 216' New Year's Eve trip to Biltmore House in Asheville, NC! How we love to look at those pictures and reflect back on that Holiday and our fun. We just regret we did not live closer to give you comfort in your time of sickness... how much I, especially, longed to be with you. Rest in Peace, our dear friend. You are now free, from all pain and we know you have a great big Crown of BLING on your head!!! I'll be wearing "Bling" for you on Thursday as my final Good-Bye to you. Love you from South Carolina! “ It has been an honor and a privilege to be included in your circle of friends. The biggest joy I had was booking all your trips, and especially when you ventured out for your 50th surprise trip to Europe. That was just the beginning....It was always my responsibility to make sure you had a memory of a lifetime every time you went, and be safe. You introduced me to the world of sparkles, and always tried to outdo your efforts when I knew I was going to see you! I have booked your family trips for so long I knew so well what you liked and wanted without you saying a word-just book me! I will miss your smile and laugh that warmed my heart for years. Every time I travel, I take a part of you with me.....

“ I have never known a more gentle soul, so beautiful and full of grace. She made everyone around her beautiful just by her presence. My heart is heavy for those that will continue on without her, but this is not 'goodbye' but 'see you in a while, my friend'!!!

“ Our family will never be the same! One of my favorite memories of Rhonda was how much she loved to scare people and then just laugh and laugh about it. She loved playing funny innocent pranks on people and she got me quite a few times. And Rhonda, without you or my mom, our family is going to starve to death! We all enjoyed every meal you have prepared. I'm thankful for the many years God let us have you and I find comfort in knowing He has taken you home!

Love from your sister in law,

“ Rhonda, I loved you and you were my best friend, and I realize that you had many best friends. I know you are finally resting and well surrounded by those you love especially Candace and your dad. I want everyone to know how loving, caring and giving you were, you were selfless, stoic, and strong. . I have been truly blessed to call you my friend, and I believe that you are a true angel on earth, that I and so many others were privileged to have in their lives. May you find peace and joy with you loved ones, and for those still her to have the continued love felt that you gave out. I will miss you all the days of my life.💕💕

“ Rhonda was a beautiful woman inside and out. I will never forget when she visited Augusta and we went clothes shopping together. I must have been 12 or 13 at the time and she made me feel like a princess. Rest in peace with Candace. My love and condolences to the whole family. Know that you are all much loved and thought of around the world.
