“ Dad was a great man who inspired the family to be the very best they could be. He was a loving father and husband, a great model to follow. I miss Dad, and going there on Sunday. I know both Mom and Dad are looking down from heaven on the family and all the people they knew. I will always remember Dad as man of grace and honor.

“ What a truly nice man and excellent teacher! I still remember the so much of what Mr B taught me! Mr B was very involved in school activities. I remember when he tore his hamstring playing softball with the teachers. He was so tough, he walked off the field without help! Poor, tough guy! I also remember an occasion when he saw a little girl picked up by a man while she was walking to school. He chased that car for miles. The police and everyone else congratulated him for getting involved. The girl was returned safely. The bottom line is, Mr Baginski will remembered by his students as an excellent teacher and an exemplary human!
