“ I worked with Rick for many years. He was always a good friend, kind and generous. He made us laugh. He always bragged about his family, his daughters and then his grandchildren. A very family oriented man. The gifts he would often get for people in the office showed he put a lot of time and thought into them. He made our office picnics and Christmas parties more fun by offering to do all the shopping and purchasing of raffle prizes and gifts. The raffles were the highlight of the picnics and parties. I will miss his very funny Facebook posts. He fought hard against his illness, always with some humor. Rest in Peace, Rick. You will be missed sorely.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with Rick for many years at Maynards. He was a true gentleman and a great friend and co-worker. He brought me back a cup setting of Princess Diana and Charles that I will cherish forever. He will truly be missed but is in the best hands now. Sharon Harrington

“ I worked with Rick for a number of years at Maynard. He had a great sense of humor and always gave me a thoughtful and unique gift at Christmas. One of the decorations has gotten so many compliments. My husband and I reminisce about Rick every time we put that particular decoration out during the holidays. This year it will be with some sadness. RIP Rick.
