

Richard Norman Elliott

September 30, 1933 - May 9, 2021

Richard Norman Elliott; Age 87, May 9, 2021.

Beloved husband of the late Marie (Bongiorno) Elliott.

Loving father of Lori Elliott, Diana (Mike) Madden, Richelle (the late Frank Jr.) Urban.

Loving grandfather to Luke Madden (Brandon Melnyk), Eric (Kerryn) Madden, Frank Urban III and Annika Urban.

Loving Great Grandfather to Owen and Emilia Madden.

Loving son of the late Percy and Ethel Elliott.

Loving brother of Marilyn (the late Jack) Gray and the late Edgar Elliott.

Also remembered by several nieces, nephews and many friends.

Richard worked in the printing industry where he was a printing press operator for Drake Printing and Allied Printing, until his retirement. He enjoyed his Friday bowling nights, golfing and his walks around the neighborhood where he would interact with the people he met along the way. He was an avid fan of his grandchildren's sporting events and never missed a hockey game, tournament, soccer or volleyball match. He was also an avid fan of the Detroit Red Wings and watched every game when possible. He was a kind, loving gentle soul who will be missed dearly by everyone who knew him.

“ So many memories! All of them full of fun! Dick was a neighbor but more importantly a friend. He kept track of everyone's kids and grandkids through the years, always asking with a caring heart how they were doing. He was a part of a very diligent neighborhood watch. He also had ear scratches ready for dogs that were visitors to his porch. We will miss him so much, but we know he joins the love of his life!
