“ *My sympathy to all of Wawrzyniak family. I have known Richard since my first day on maintenance at the Gear and Axle, he was a good teacher to help a new man on the job, and has been a good friend all of these many years. He will be missed at our breakfast meeting. I am sorry I will not be able to attend the funeral as I am out of town May your memories of him help you during sad time. You are in my prayers. Rest in Peace Wa Wa.

“ Dear Family, I was saddened to read of your loss and I'd like to extend my deepest sympathy for your dearly loved Richard J. Wawrzyniak. The Bible tells us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." This is a hope that is held out to all mankind, including Richard J. Wawrzyniak. May the God of tender mercies and ALL comfort be a source of strength to your family during your time of mourning.

“ With my deepest sympathy, Wa Wa (as we called him) will be missed by many, I am glad to have shared the last few years at our monthly Monday breakfast get togethers with him. Having met Richard some 40 years ago at Chevy Gear and Axle he was a good teacher, journeyman, leader and a very smart hard worker. I can still remember some of the lessons he drilled into my head for doing conveyor work, he never gave up. You could tell he was a very good family man by his actions and conversations about his wife, daughter and his church. The last few months seeing his chair empty everyone would ask, where is Wa Wa? Knowing his medical condition and seeing others in our group fade away with the same illness we figured for the worse, to repeat myself, "he will be missed". Joe Altz
