

Richard Edward Yagloski

November 11, 1936 - December 30, 2022

Richard is predeceased by his wife, Rose Marie; children, Richard, Joseph & Diane; and sister Joan Lukas.

He is survived by his children William (Claudette) & Robert (Susan); grandchildren Joseph, Alexis, Christian, Dana (Charles), Devon, Samantha (Thomas), Joshua (Emily), Blake, Tyler, Spencer, Brittany, and Heather; and great-grandchildren Lilah, Presley, Neicoh, Abel, Aden, Benjamin, Adelaide, Liam, Elijah, with a 10th great-grandchild due in June of 2023. As well as brothers and sisters in law, many nieces, nephews and friends.

Richard was born in Swoyersville, Pennsylvania to parents Helen & Joseph Yaglowksi. In 1955, the family packed up and moved to the outskirts of Hamtramck, Michigan, where Richard took a job in a local bakery. By 1958, Richard had married and started a family with Rose Marie. In time, Richard became the head baker and by age 59, he retired from a job that he loved. At family functions, he always brought a dish or two to pass and everyone loved the meals or treats that he made. Not only a master at baking confections but also a master chef.

Retiring at a young age allowed Richard to spend time with his family and soon his grandchildren. He loved all sports, with a special love for the Red Wings and fishing. He truly was the man, the myth, the legend.

“ Big Rich. So sorry to see you go. You and Rosie were so good to me through my entire life. I know you wanted Diane and I to marry and gently pushed us both in that direction but it was not to be. I grew up with you and your children. Rosie was my second mom. You were my best example of a father. I saw how hard you worked for your family and how much you loved them. I will forever admire you for the way you treated your family and how I was treated. I always had a table to sit at and a meal to eat with your kids when I was growing up. Rosie asked me where are your parents. In the Caribbean. "Sit down and eat". What hospitality. You gave me my only going away party in 1978 when I was returning to Japan when my leave was over. Thinking of it brings tears to my eyes now as it did then. Oh my my. The day you brought the car home you had painted at Earl Sheib. You kicked a lump of dirt off the rocker panel, it was a different color underneath. They painted over it. I couldn't stop laughing. You took it well. You pulled in the driveway the day Joe and I had a spit duel. The most disgusting thing you ever saw in your life you said... yet still always welcomed me into your home. AND told me "you're a good man, Steve".

“ So very sorry about Ritchie's passing. He & Nick talked often on the phone. He liked to talk about the old days in Swoyersville & old friends. Nick is sure going to miss his calls. They had a lot of good memories. He is resting in peace.
