“ One of many memories is Aunt Rita and Bonnie taking me and Connie shopping to buy clothes after our mom died. Very thoughtful. Also when Aunt Rita wanted to do something she did it. I remember her getting her drivers license when she was ?? older. Very sorry for your loss. love, Sandy Wilson,

“ Auntie Rita was a tough old bird, but she had the sweetest heart! I am so sorry that all of my cousins, "Aunts", and "Uncles" will have to carry the pain of her loss.

I have many memories of Auntie Rita, but I will share two...

When I was just a little bittie nothing, she bought me one of those silly white rotary telephone toys that had eyes and a blue receiver handle. (We all remember that iconic toy from our childhoods.) Well, every time I see one I still think of Auntie Rita.

I also remember being at my Grampa's house when Auntie Rita came over bubbling with joy and gushing with pride over Kim's Sweet Sixteen! She was so cute. She sat down and told me all about the decorations...and about the cute balloon delivery boy that she was sure had a crush on Kim. She was so, so happy that day!

I'm sorry to post a memory about Kim and to not have stories of the rest of the grandchildren, but I know she loved each and every one of you. I just happened to be at my Grampa's house that day and that memory stuck...probably because Kim and I were always very close growing up.

I am so sorry for you all to have lost her, but I am happy for her to be reunited with Granny, with her beloved husband, and her beloved "Little Eddie." Also, she'll be able to talk, laugh, and maybe even gossip (a little...we ARE Polish) with her friend and sister-in-law Auntie Dolores!

I will remember you fondly, Auntie Rita...and I will see you again someday. Give Granny, Auntie Dolores, "Uncle Kip," and my Gramps my love.

“ Grandma Rita taught us all to love each other and to love life! She likely never knew how many lives she touched, but we, her family and friends, know. Bright colors (yellow especially!), cookies in the cookie jar, bread for her backyard birds, birthday cakes topped with her homemade frosting...the list of happy memories could go on and on. Rest in peace, Gram! See you again on the other side.
