“ I am truly going to miss going to the house without you there, things will never be the same. I know that when I miss you most, I will be comforted with all the memories I have of you. I don't know where I'd be without you grandpa.. I just really wish that spanky had the opportunity to grow up and know you like we all did. I will ensure that he will know a lot about you though, as there are plenty of stories to share. I don't want you to worry about grandma, I know that you are. But just know that she has a big support system to make sure she gets through and we will always be there for her. Deep down, I know in my heart that you're in a better place.. you feel no more pain. But let me tell you, there is a hole in my heart that will never be filled. I will take all of your wisdom and use it everyday.

My fondest memories of you

I am sorry that my speech wasn't that great, but I knew I had to get up there and tell everyone how much you impacted my life!

rest in paradise, I love ya.

“ Grandpa was more than a grandfather, he was a great mentor and role model. I will cherish every memory that I have of him. Like the time that he painted the garage door and then I jumped after he was finished and put my own little twist on it, also the time that he and grandma came home with my pink power wheels motorcycle, all the great holiday parties at HOH Club house for the children growing up and coming to my school plays.. oh goodness there was a few... I have you to thank for some of the most wonderful childhood memories.

Grandpa was always there when you needed him to give you a shoulder to lean on, a ear to listen, there to help you when you have fallen, or even give you that gentle push to get you back on the right path.

Grandpa was the kind of man that anyone that knew him couldn't help but love him. Always ready with a warm smile, a kind heart and a firm hand shake to some but to us grand kids a bear hug was always waiting. Grandpa always wanted us to be creative and smart, all those time after I had finished my homework we would watch Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy. Sue mentioned the great nicknames that he would give us and keeping the tradition going. That's a hard spot for anyone to fill.

Grandpa I just hope you know that I really wanted to be there and say "see you later" because it will never be goodbye. I love you now and forever.. I hope that you watch over us and continue to guide all of us.

I will celebrate your life each year as well as my own Oct 17th.

“ Dad,

We will miss you and love you. You were always there for me through the good times and the bad. Your wisdom saw us through many difficulties and enlighten our lives. You gave me so much valuable advice in my younger days. You taught me how to stand up and make a difference. We enjoyed debating current events that we sometimes may not have agreed upon, but always seemed to find common ground on. You opened our eyes and our hearts and for that we will always treasure your memory.

*Love,
Matt & Tammy Barngrover*

“ I have to think back on some of the great memories that all of us kids had with you and mom.. like piling in the van to sneak us in to the drive- in .. or playing playing volleyball years ago in the back yard .. and everyone going to the Hoe Down and just so many many fond memories were created.... Blowing bubbles off the porch lol...The time you put the water hose through my bedroom window and woke me up I was mad then but it's funny now... the small moments... It's all flooding back and I have to laugh on alot ... We were all some crazy kids and I appreciate your advice as I was growing up and even as an adult.. Just hard to believe your gone... but you will never be forgotten ... and forever truly missed. P.s. I loved that each one of the little ones had a knick name... it left a mark on all of there hearts and looking at Dillon your right he looks like spanky and we will continue that .. miss you
