“ You didn’t just raise me —
you built me,
one steady word,
one quiet act of strength at a time.

Your hands taught lessons your voice never needed to say — that real men don’t shout,
they show up,
and when life hits hard,
they keep standing.

If heaven keeps a score,
you’re undefeated.
And down here,
I’ll carry your name
like a medal —
not for what you gave me,
but for who you made me.

I love you, Dad. Rest in peace.

Love you always & forever,
Christopher
