“ Dear family, I am sorry about the loss of your loved one Robert J. Lindeman, and I want to extent my deepest sympathy. After the death of a loved one we sometimes wonder what will become of me now that they're gone. I have found comfort in Matthew 6:25-34, which tells us never, be anxious about the next day, for the next day will have its own anxieties. Please find comfort in these additional bible scriptures Luke 23:43 and John 5:28, 29.

“ Uncle Bob, my memories from you go back to Christmas time in the basement at your house, that was always my favorite place to go for Christmas as a child! As I grew older we were not as close, but the way you were there for my grandma and the rest of us during and after my grandpa's passing is something I will always be grateful for. I cherish the day that I brought Louie over to your house (that dog loves you so much btw) and we sat at the table and talked and looked at old pictures of you and grandpa! Thank you so much for always being there for us and taking such good care of my grandma. Now it is time for you to take care of my grandpa and Aunt Jan up in Heaven, I am sure they are so thankful to have you home with them. You are an amazing person and you will truly be missed by all of us. All of your children, grandchildren and Jane will be in my thoughts and prayers and you will be in my heart forever!

“ Uncle Bob, what words could possible express how much you will be missed? From a young age I realized what an amazing man you were when we were at Grandpa's funeral and I remember putting my hands over my eyes and crying. The next thing I knew was that you were next to me and my mom and had scooped us up in your arms. You will never know how much that hug meant to me. The way you and Jane took care of my mom after my dad died just shows how loving of a person you are. God has blessed you abundantly with five amazing children and all of your grandchildren and the two main woman in your life, Aunt Jan and Jane. I know you are glad to be home and in God's loving arms. Please take care of my dad now that the two of you are back together again. Love, “ Uncle Bob, without a doubt the funniest man in our family. Whenever you visited Nana and Gramps you always knew how to leave us smiling and cracking up. After Gramps passed the way you looked after my grandmother is something I have thanked you for every single day of my life. Next time there's a thunderstorm I'll have no choice but to shake my head and once again give a good chuckle cause I know its you and gramps causing nothing but trouble up in Heaven. Keep that goofball in line because as much as I love him we all know you are the brains of the operation. I love you and I love you all.
