“ Dear Dee and Bob,

It was a pleasure to know Dick. He was a man of few words and rather chose to lead by actions. Dick was a loving husband and father. Nothing was more important than his family. Dee, he worshiped you! Bob, no father was ever prouder of his son than Dick was of you! It was an honor to know him. Even when death ends a loved ones suffering it is still hard to accept. May the many memories you have shared be of comfort to you. Love, Annie

“ Dear family, I am so sorry to read of your loss and would like to extend my deepest sympathy for your dear father and husband. I can't imagine the pain you feel. I pray that you find comfort in the promise that God does not take our loved ones (James 1:13) and that soon there will be no need for grieving (1 Corinthians 15:26) and that God will comfort your family as you await seeing your loved one again (2 Corinthians 1:3-7 and Acts 24:15). This helped me during my mourning I hope it helps your family.
