“ To say that I am beyond devastated is a complete understatement. My Dad was a very tough man, with a heart of gold and he was my hero. There is so much that I want to say, but it is still so hard to put anything into words... I will miss so much about you Poppa, so much! You definitely took a piece of my heart with you, and I just wish I was able to have one more conversation with you... life without you is going to be very difficult... I thank you for all that you taught me, the trips we took, going to hockey games, spending time with family, learning how to fish and how to hunt and especially all of the laughs and big hugs we shared.. I hope you will forever rest easy Poppa. I Love you!

“ Bob was a good neighbor. In the summer he would come over and sit in our garage with my husband and discuss world problems. Not that they ever solved anything but they sure tried! He will be missed. Judy Surprenant.
