“ Please accept my deepest condolences to your family. During this difficult time please keep in mind the encouraging words found in the Scriptures at Isaiah 25:8 where it says, “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces”. Know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. And please let the hope found in God’s Word the Bible provide encouragement to your family.

“ He was the best uncle! One of my favorite memories is attending the Italian Festival with Uncle Bob at Freedom Hill. We had a such good time - to the great dismay of anyone sitting near us! Uncle Bob was always there for me and never said no or I can't. Thanks for all the help with washers and dryers and sinks and toilets and cars and windows and stoves and plumbing . . . (and thanks for rushing over to help me search for my fingertips amongst the shrub clippings. Ooops! Maybe I should have called you BEFORE I started trimming!) But mostly thanks for all the corny jokes, and all the stiff-armed handshakes and all the laughs! I wish we could've had one more cigar together.

“ Robert J. Speck , Was GREAT DAD he was ALWAYS there for me. He taught more than he realized not only about life but about many other things. He could fix anything. I will miss him every day.
