“ Well who knows you better than your neighbors . . .

Christina, Carol, Kathleen, and Sharon,

We sorrow for your loss, when Bob moved onto Teton Pass, he was a breathe of Fresh Air!

So kind, so gentle, so polite, truly a classy man , filled with manners and social skills, He would share many a story from California , Yes we even enjoyed his drumming, Bob was a special man, sweet to his core.

We mourned with him , when his wife passed in the fall, his eyes actually sparkled when he spoke of his daughter Christina

We kept our eye on him, he would even let us know when he was going to be out of town.

In closing , we already miss him , and his heartfelt text messages , our street was a better place because of him.

May the riches of Gods Mercy & Grace cover you, as you cling to precious memories of a Man, Dad & Brother that made the world a better place, simply because he chose kindness ,every day of his short life

*By His Grace, For His Glory, for our Good
