“ God bless you Rodney! Good man going to Heaven for sure. Rodney was one of my best friends during high school and after it. He was a great friend and very loyal friend too. Rodney had my back no matter what. I remember he was a great running back too. Out on that football field, you didn't want to go 1 on 1 with Rodney if you didn't have to because he could always get his helmet lower than yours and knock you on your butt! I haven't seen Rodney in a very long time. I'm very sad today to hear about Rodney passing. My heart is broken, thinking about him now because I did still love him very much like a brother. My thoughts and prayers are with his family. Richard Maksym

“ The night before thanksgiving 2015 we reconnected our friendship over coffee listening to christmas music talked about life his new life and future and our past in school. He was a sweetheart and a cutie he was so excited about starting over his life he talked about god and how he wanted to do better for his family we held hands drove around town it was great we said we wanted to stay friends forever but he still managed to sneak a kiss from me that night. It breaks my heart to see his journey over and he went home till we see you again one day dear friend may god be by your side your friend michele munro
