“ *I am so sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is never easy. One thing that I've found to help is the hope found at John 5:28, 29. It says: "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who practiced good things to a resurrection of life..." Our creator promises to resurrect those who are sleeping in death. You may wonder, when and how? Visit www.jw.org and download the free book, What Does the Bible Really Teach, for the answer. I am sure that you will be comforted as I have been.*

Love you both. I think it was a happy day for dad. So many people had really good memories and he was smiling.

“ To my friend Sue and the children and grandchildren. I am so sad to hear of the loss of Roger. To me he was a friend among friends. We shared plenty of. Fun good times together and with the rest of the guys. From our boyhood on up to our early adult years. Roger was always good for a laugh and nobody could hold a candle to the crazy antics we cooked up as kids. Sometimes we got in trouble sometime we got away with stuff. But whatever in good time and bad times you could always get a laugh out of us Rog. We had such fun!! So we all have some pretty darn good memories to fall back on. Some of us even have scars because of your artful driving. You were and are a good friend. Till we meet again. Good bye and catch up with you later.
