“ I met dad when I was 17...just after Lee asked me to his prom in '86. I had never met someone with a real life with a full on beard before! He was a cross between Grizzley Adams and ZZ Top. But, he was nice...he had a good heart. People genuinely loved him. He was a good husband, father (in-law) and grampa and he'd do anything for the people he loved.

I grew up knowing Ronnie. He was my sister in law's older brother. He used to visit on his motorcycle and take me for a ride once I'm awhile. We attended many party's wedding's and funeral's together. He was a great guy. He will be missed

I remember the first time I met Lee's Dad. He walked into the house with a big smile and a wonderful chuckle. He lit up the room! He was a friendly, down to earth, warm guy with some great stories. Rest in peace Grandpa Beswick.
