“ My Uncle Ron was the best. He was that one person in the family who just went with the flow and didn't care what others thought. Who else gets their niece Harley Davidson clothes and says now you are ready to be a little biker babe. One of my favorite memories is this rainy day drive we took to the butcher for the biggest steaks we could find. The Piña Colada song came on, and he cranked it up, and said “This is a classic — don't forget it.” He was so serious about his music too — made me sit down and watch that old Fleetwood Mac '97 concert on VHS like it was a documentary. I remember watching almost every visit I had with him as a kid.

He wasn't just my favorite uncle. He felt more like a second dad, my buddy, my partner in crime for random drives and weird jokes and learning how to do stuff most people wouldn't take the time to teach a kid. And especially things he knew would raise my moms heart rate.

I miss him all the time. But I still think of him every time a Fleetwood Mac song comes on, or when it's raining and that pina colada song comes on.

Thank you for everything Uncle Ron!

“ Ron,

Kevin & I were grateful we were able to chat with you last Monday. Our plan was to bring you a warm meal this weekend and laugh like we always did. Instead, we are saying goodbye. So goodbye to a wonderful bowling and life coach to our daughter, Kelsey. You taught her it's okay to have fun while working toward your goals. You were a cherished friend to us and will always be in our thoughts and prayers.

Love,

Kevin & Renee

“ Ron,

Dear cousin, you will be missed. I'll never forget you visiting me when I lived in Washington, D.C. in the late '80's and we visited the Shrine. You were such a good man. I will always pray for you and keep you in my thoughts. Much love,
