“ She wasn't my grandma by blood but she was at heart. She was such a beautiful soul and always knew what to say. She accepted my family as hers and even when things got tough, I was still her granddaughter. I'm lucky to have known such an amazing woman and to have had her as part of my life. As much as I miss Rick, I know I will miss her too. But he and Joe have been patiently waiting for her in heaven and now they are finally reunited. May we meet again grandma ❤️

“ We have so so many great memories, I believe one of the best from more recent times was the day Uncle Rich, Aunt Rosie and mom were all reunited as brother/sisters again. That meant more to my mom than anything else, and I know it did to you as well. My heart aches, I wish we were able to do those things that we were talking about, but I know you are know longer suffering, you're with your sons and family.

I remember you giving mom a tag from a flower you bought a couple years ago to give to me...the flower's name was "Madam." No one else can call me that but you...oh, how I miss you.

You are deeply missed, but the memories will remain in our hearts forever. All the summer trips to Gaylord, fishing, trips to PA, spending summers over your house, all the laughter we all shared, the joy, the happiness...that's what family is about!

Keeping Uncle Rich, Billy & Claudette (and family), Diane & Jeff (and family), Rob & Sue (and family) along with all of your side of the family in my thoughts and prayers.

As I always told you, I love you very much, and I will keep you in my heart forever.

“ Dear Uncle Richard, Diane, Bill and Rob.....and to all family. My heart is with you all at this very difficult time. Find peace in knowing that Aunt Rosie won't be suffering any longer. She was beautiful inside and out and the best Godmother I could have ever asked for..... and she is now reunited with her son's Rick and Joe.

Sending love, strength and prayers to get you all through the days to come.....

Love you all, Karen Lukas
