“ My precious mother was a strong woman. Strong in her beliefs, convictions and faith. She stuck to her values and morals. She did not judge and accepted people as they were. She led by example and her character was never in question. We all have been blessed with her love and care for we could always count on her. Even facing the end of her life, she remained pleasant, sweet and loving. She will forever remain in my heart and her influence will steer me the rest of my life.

“ I have enjoyed, for the past two years, calling Sadie weekly. It seems as though she was always watching a Detroit Tigers game. She loved the Tigers and White Castle hamburgers. These are two things we had in common. Sadie was always upbeat and never complained or spoke ill of others. I will so miss our conversations. Frank, Tom, and Brenda, you are in our prayers that the Lord would comfort your hearts during this difficult loss. I love you all.
