“ Mrs. Marks was one of the nicest people I have ever met. When my mother was in an Assisted Living Home, Sarah visited often and we both really appreciated this. When Sarah was unable to stop by and visit my mom, she would call me. I am so sorry for her families loss, but heaven has another angel. I hope her and my mom are back on the dance floor now. God Bless Mrs. Marks.

“ Sarah was the sweetest lady and nicest friend to my mom. I'm so sorry to hear she has passed. Sarah came to my mom's 90th birthday party and was so kind and loving. She sat with my mom (who had a stroke 6 years ago), helped her with her food, and made sure my mom was doing ok throughout the entire afternoon. The picture below is from that day. Sarah, would also call me from time to time to see how my mom is doing. She had to check in on her friend!! Sarah, you will be greatly missed!

“ I worked with Linda at Big Boys for many years. I didn't know her mom very well but I remember going to her house at lunch time to watch "All My Children". She always had a big smile & made me feel welcome. Of course lunch was always offered. She truly was a great lady. My heart goes out to you Linda & your whole family in this time of sadness. ❤️

“ she was the sweetest lady I know she was very giving and loving person, when my oldest Daughter when she was young had to have an ear operation off 9 mile Rd. she let us spend the night afterwards cause we had to be back at the hospital the next morn. and the a few days later my daughter ended back in the hospital for 10 days and I wouldn't leave her so Sara let me come down and take showers and get cleaned up until my daughter was released from the hospital. I really wished I would of seen her before this. But alot has happened in my life. My Parents and family really loved her. U will be really missed. R.I.P. Sara.

“ Aunt Sarah was always so sweet, cheerful, and loving. She seemed to always have a smile on her face and really knew how to enjoy life. Her unceasing optimism and generosity has inspired me to strive to be more like her.

“ Sarah was my best friend from Santa Maria, Marie Marks' mom. She had 7 children & ran a parking lot in the backyard, so she was very busy. If one of the kids hinted they were sick & needed to stay home from school, they got an immediate stock answer "Take a pill, go to school"!!!! She always had Stella D'Oro cookies in the kitchen cabinet. I learned to love them with hot tea - comfort food for me to this day!!! On Sunday, Sarah always put banana curls in the girls' hair on Sunday morning. I stayed at their house most weekends (it was very roomy, 7 kids + me plus Frank & Sarah in a 3 bedroom house). Sarah later claimed I was like another daughter to her, which touched me deeply, but I always thought she just didn't notice me!!!! I will miss her. Gina Sciana's wedding 3 weeks ago was a blessing because everyone was there to see her a last time for a joyous occasion!!!! She's home now with Frank, her true love and Darlene her angel daughter!!!! I know she's dancing!!!

“ There are so many memories its hard to choose just one, but i would like to share her love and dedication to her children first. The most warm hearted and kindest people you will ever come across every one of them so compassionate and caring.

My Grandmother had to endure the tragic loss of her daughter at 14 years old and caring for my grandfather whom had suffered a massive stroke just before losing her daughter. But my grandma and her children stayed strong. it wasn't always easy. But they stayed strong together as a family and continue that way to this day. I'm so proud to have them in my life.

She was the rock of our family, she is now reunited with her late husband Frank , her daughter Darlene, her Brother Johnny, sisters Mary and Francis. I hope there is dance floor for her in heaven.

If you are listening Dean Martin please put your arms around her and serenade my Grandma as she ascends into heaven. Please sing "Oh Marie" for her !!! thank you Dean.
