

Saranette "Sara" Kepler Brenz

October 29, 1966 - September 13, 2025

It is with a heavy heart that we announce the passing of Saranette (Sara) Kepler Brenz, age 58, on September 13th, 2025. Born on October 29th, 1966 in Detroit, Sara was a chatterbox and a troublemaker. But most importantly, she was caring, empathetic, incredibly intelligent, a staunch advocate for political and social change, and a loving wife and mother. She graduated from Wayne State University with a BA in Communications in 1998 but she surely gained her reputation as an intellectual well before that. No words could describe how wonderful of a person she was nor how immensely loved she was by her friends and family.

Daughter of the late George and Margaret Kepler, and preceded in death by her siblings Vincent, Albert, Georgianna, Jack, Eugene (Maria), and Patrick. She is survived by her siblings Faith, Louis (Nanci), Ralph, Sarah (Ron), Annette, and Peggy. She is also survived by her selfless and adoring husband, Andy, and her children, Prudence (23) and Miles (20).

While we welcome flowers (gerbera daisies and calla lilies were Sara's favorites), we also would love if you made a donation to support ALS research, patient care, and clinical trials using one of the following links:

“ I never got to talk to Sara - but I met her family and got to hear stories about her passion, humor, and love of art. Her husband, children, sisters and brother were warm, kind, and so dedicated showing me how tremendous their relationship was. It was a complete honor to be her nurse and to meet her loved ones. Judging by her support group, she was an amazing individual who just kept giving and will truly be missed. Her children and husband are amazing individuals and I know her life meant so much to so many.

“ Oh my little sister, I sure do miss you already. Why do I feel this way?..OUN-NO. Haha! That was an inside joke/quote from one of our favorite comedians, that made her smile in her final days at the hospital. I have so many great memories of you that I will continue to share through photos and stories with the kids, Andy, friends and family. I love you so much!
