“ Dear Family, I was saddened to read of your loss and I'd like to extend my deepest sympathy for your dearly loved Scott so young .I cant imagine the pain you must feel. I pray that you can find hope in the Bible: 1) A loving God would never take our loved ones: (James 1:13) ?With evil things God cannot be tried nor does he himself try anyone.? 2) God will comfort you: (Psalm 34:18) ?Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; And those who are crushed in spirit he saves.? 3) Jesus Christ, thru God?s Kingdom, His Word, the Bible, gives us a wonderful hope, namely, the prospect of living in a paradise on earth and seeing the resurrection of our loved ones. (Luke 23:43; John 5:28, 29)) ~ Hope this comforts you like it has my family during loss.

“ Dear Simpson family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Scott Simpson. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest.

“ Mr. & Mrs. Simpson and Amy -

I am so sorry to hear about Scott. I have such fond memories of living next door, and trying to tag along with Scott, Amy and Rupesh when playing. Scott was always so cheerful and playful, with an infectious smile. He will be missed. Much love, thoughts and prayers for all of you.

“ Dear Mr & Mrs. Simpson and Amy,

I am so sorry to hear about Scott's passing. Although I haven't seen Scott in a while we recently connected over Facebook.

I still think back to growing up with Scotty and how much fun we had - playing baseball, riding bikes and breaking windows.

My thoughts are with you.

“ My heart goes out to you. I have very fond memories of Scott. He was always so sweet to me. He will be missed deeply by many. So very sorry for your loss and heartbreak. My love to Jeanne, Bruce and Amy, Granny, and the rest of the family including the cousins who were so close. Much too early to lose such a good soul.

Love, Aunt Sue (Susan)
