“ *Sherry was a very good person. She use to babysit for my two sons when she lived on Duffield Road. I never worried about the boys because I knew she had things under control or she would ask her Mom and Dad questions as we lived next door. To this day, my oldest son David has kept in contact with her through social media. What a bright light she was, and we will send up prayers for her. God Bless her and keep her safe in your loving arms Dear Lord. Amen! I am so very sorry for your loss.
Most sincerely, Nancy Heath*

I worked with Sherry and James. Sherry had a great sense of humor and just a caring person who was down to earth and always smiling. She will be missed. Fly high angle.
