“ Mom, I miss you so much - words cannot say. You fought a long and very tough battle. You endured so much these past several years including your two battles with cancer. We thought so many times we were going to lose you but you were such a fighter but we had no idea how much of a fighter you really were until these past few months. You fought, you suffered but you still would smile along the way. You never gave up and always kept your faith in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. I know you are in heaven enjoying the eternal life we are promised. As I always told you, I will love you forever and always, TTB and WXYZ and I will see you again some day. Love, Sheilalynne (Baby Girl/Sedo), XOXO

“ Dearest Mom, you fought a long tough battle, you can finally rest. With the strong faith that you had in our Lord, our savior Jesus Christ, how fitting for him to call you home on Thanksgiving day to be with all of your faithfully departed family members in celebration of your new eternal life. I will never forget the last time you said something directly to me just a few days ago: You had no voice but you lifted your head as best as you could, looked right at me and mouthed the words, I LOVE YOU. Well Mom like I said, I love you too and may you rest in peace with what we are promised simply because we believe: Eternal Life! How wonderful is that! God Bless you and Rest In Peace until we meet again.....xo TTB & XYZ Steven
