“ Sophie was a good friend as well as a neighbor and "family member". We're going to miss her, but we're happy she's at peace and with the Lord. I'll always remember her smile and hugs that she was so generous to share, not only with me, but all she came in contact with. All our prayers always. Richard and Cynthia

“ Mom loved saying the rosary weekly in front of a blessed mother statue and a lit candle. She had me light church candles weekly for those people in need of God's assistance. Mom had a keen and unbelievably memory. She often reminded me of things I forgot to do and of impending birthdays approaching. Just a few weeks ago she told me her patron Saint feast day was on May 15th - sure enough it was the feast day of St. Sophia of Rome. I thoroughly enjoyed my mom being with me - she was exceptionally kind and loving and I will miss her sorely. May you rest in peace Mom.

Your loving son,

Bob

“ My Mother was a great polish Mom, cook, had a great sense of humor, and was so kind to family, friends, and strangers. Very generous, she save much to make others happy and to share what she had. She was a women of great faith that helped her navigate the trials and tribulations of life. Always seeing the good in people, she was always thanking those that helped her. My Brother Bob was her caregiver, and she always was so grateful that he opened his home and dedicated many years to care for her. She loved the simple things in life like comics in the paper, People magazine, and watching the TV shows of long ago. Westerns were her favorite in the last months of her life. I will miss her so much, but my Mom was ready to go on to meet the Lord. On her last days, I told her of the many people waiting to greet her in heaven, and I imagine they are all so happy to have her join them. If she could say anything to all of us, it would be to be kind, and share what what you have with those that you care about. Do the random acts of kindness and share a bit of yourself with others. Love you always Mom.....

Your loving and grateful daughter,

Rosemary
