“ I was so sad to hear of Stan's passing. He was not only our CPA, he was our friend. He was a friend to my mom and dad (Calvin and Helen English) before us. Rest in peace, dear friend, and know you will be sadly missed.

“ Stan was not only my boss, but my mentor, advisor, friend and most importantly my family. Having worked for him for almost 30 years I cannot put into words the amount of gratitude I have for him and all that he has taught me. I will miss out discussions, problem solving pow wows and our sports related conversations. His attention, loyalty and compassion for his clients are going to be hard shoes to fill. I hope to make him proud as I continue to service what he has built. His smile, wit and his ability to make you laugh will be greatly missed. Dee and I cherish all the celebrations with Ethel and you over the years and will miss your trivia and chances to win the lottery. May you be at peace and may our memories heal our loss.

“ I will miss Stan. I have known him most of my life. We are cousins. We lived only miles apart and would visits as kids. I remember learning how to play stick ball in the streets of Jamaica(Queens). But really got to know him when I moved to Michigab 42 years ago. He took me to Frankenmuth, Detroit.we golfed together. Went to Superbowl parties. We became good friend. He was always helpful and always willing to listen and always smiled and laughed. He an Ethel welcomed me and my family into their lives. I want to celebrate his life and he will always be part of mine

“ The family of Milo Boring & Machining is saddened to hear the news of our dear friend’s passing. Stan has been with us from the beginning, our one and only cpa since 1996. Everything we have built, both professionally and personally, was guided by his knowledge and expertise. None of it would’ve been possible without him. I will miss his quarterly visits to our office when, invariably, his wit and sense of humor would make me feel better about my accounting mistakes, no matter how many times I’d made the same error. Today I’m especially grateful for his wheeling briefcase, because hearing it jostle toward the door a few weeks ago let me know he was leaving and gave me the chance to say goodbye. We will miss you, Stan.

When Stan was recommended to me as CPA from a Macomb probate attorney many years ago, I quickly came to realize that he was not only the consummate professional in his field, but one of the kindest, warmest and most thoughtful and modest people I had ever met. I only found out about his personal accomplishments, like his service to our country, from others, not from him. May Ethyl, his stepchildren, and the rest of his friends and family be comforted among the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.

“ After 40 years of preparing my personal and business tax returns, I didn't expect that our relationship will end so sudden. When reviewing the return and presenting the bill I would always tell him that he didn't charge enough. Stan was honest and ethical. We will miss him. May His Memory be for a Blessing.

Stan was introduced to us by our good friends who own a business, as we do. What started out as the best CPA experience ever for our business, grew into a fond relationship with Stan and his family, and family in his office. He truly cared about people first and foremost. He was funny and had such a quick wit and great sense of humor. He worked for us as though we were family, always caring and supporting us. So very sad to lose him so suddenly, cannot imagine how hard it must be for his family, friends and colleagues. We will miss you terribly Stan, rest in peace. Frank, Analya, and Derek Callendar

Dear Ethel, Laura and Chris,
We learned of Stan's passing this evening and we are heartbroken. He was our CPA for over 30 years, and he was like part of our family. He was a great guy.
Stan was smart, honest, kind and he had a great sense of humor. We will truly miss him.
May the memories of Stan bring you comfort.
