“ I remember Mrs. Booker from my days growing up on Revere Street a few houses away from the Bookers. What I remember most is how nice she was to the kids and how good her homemade pies were. We played in the yard and spent lots of time under that sour cherry tree and rocking on the glider on the front porch. As an adult, I started to make my own pies. One day my Dad shared a piece of a pie I had made with Mrs. Booker and she said it was really good. It was the greatest compliment, coming from such an outstanding baker!
My condolences to the family.

“ I remember meeting Stella for the first time in 1975 when Janet was living in Tucson AZ. Stella came out to fly Chrissy back home to Michigan and Janet was going to drive back home to Michigan. Stella's daughter Janet is one of the best friends I have ever had and Stella was a beautiful. Through the years, I have had the pleasure of being with the family for weddings, birthdays, and anniversary gatherings with the family. Stella always made me feel welcome, as did the rest of the family. Stella is in a peaceful place. May GOD bless her and the family at this difficult time.

“ I'm going to call this Dear Grammy

Though on your 100th year young Birthday I wrote you an honor letter to read to you in front of the family I know your memory has faded but I remember the sparkles in your beautiful eyes the smile on your face thank you grandma for every bath, every juice and vitamin you left me on the sink every morning for a start to a nutritious day, for every cookie you let me sneak, for every tea party you let me have with my friends in the backyard, for the years of ethnic Polish traditions, for every pierogi, pie, meal you cooked, for raising me to love all people, for the hours spent on the sewing machine, for every single night you tucked me in, for every loving word, for every walk to church, for every time you tied my babooshka, for every time you told me to lose weight, for every time you took me too summer school, for every night time prayer, for the strength you've showed me, for the humble example that spirituality is deeper than Catholicism, for teaching me above everything the Golden Rule what ever spiritual path I chose, for my mother that you raised who has sleeplessly devoted ever fiber of her love in creating a loving safe space for you I know you loved her as much as you have loved me, I love you Grammy we all love you the gentlest most committed to Creator that ever could be a lifetime of 102 years of inspiration, for teaching me to compost, for ever cup of Postum we shared at breakfast, our morning talks during radio programs, for every Tiger game we listened to on the front porch every summer. For everything we shared my blue star you will never be forgotten and I will always honor the example of a good woman you have been.

Aunt Stella,

You were such a wonderful roll model for all of us growing up. I remember the trip to Springfield. All the visits to your home on Sunday evenings watching Ed Sullivan. Jim and Janet making bread pizzas and ketchup and mustard dip for better maid potato chips. All the trips up north. You were a great sister in law to my mother. We will all miss you. You are in great hands with the lord.

*Your loving nephew ,
