“ God only gives each of us a certain amount of time on earth and every day when we wake up we make the decision how we will spend the hours, the minutes, every one a precious gift. There are no re-takes, no do overs, no chance to hit the rewind button, for that moment will be the past in the blink of an eye. There were far too many moments that turned to hours, soon to be years that we can never get back, for that I am truly sorry. But I still have the many memories that I WILL have tucked in my heart to share with my children, his children, and our grandchildren for many years to come, I pray. Thank-you Steve for those memories for you & Kathy and your part in God's plan for Tim & I. Love you and I'll see you soon.
