“ Oh Stevie B, 😞 you were such a funny, mischievous, warm hearted, intelligent and much loved guy. You were my brat and the way you giggled when I called you that used to make me laugh so hard. I will always cherish the memories we had and the uncountable nights of staying up with me and Nicky after you got off work. Your intelligence of counting and numbers and your keen ear for music just barely touches the tip of the intelligence you had, you had depth and if people were lucky they were let in by you. For the Lulgjuraj family, I am so sorry for your loss, please know you are in my prayers. 🙏❤️😞

“ I don't even know where to begin. Your death has touched me in a way I can't believe. I'm going to miss you deeply and cherish the memories and relationship that we had. You were more than a friend, you were family, my "Cuz." I'm going to miss your laugh and all the conversations about life that we used to have. I always think about growing up in Hamtramck and all the friends I've had over the years and you are a huge part of those memories. It just won't be the same without you, I know life goes on but I would rather have had it go on with you on this earth. To think I'm never going to see you or ever get a call from you again is absolutely heart wrenching. I know you were loved by your family and my heart aches for them because they loved you so much. You were well respected and many friends are also hurting right now. They won't ever forget you. I will never forget you, you'll always be in my heart. I love you, CUZ. Until we meet again, rest easy, Stevie.
