“ Suzanne was such a sweet person who lit up every room she entered. She had the voice and soul of an angel and is she is in Heaven as a real angel now. She gave her time selflessly at the Ruth Ellis Center, spending over 100 hours there in Ruth’s Closet, where she organized and redecorated. She wanted their clients to have a great experience and it showed! Rosie Dusseau, Rosette DeNomie and I will be donating to Ruth Ellis in her name. We feel she would ❤️👉👈👉👈 this. The sky is brighter today because of the love you gave us all, Suzanne, and you will never be forgotten.

“ People who knew Suzanne will tell you she had an extraordinary gift for lighting up any room she entered. Her infectious smile, which could only be described as perfect, had the power to uplift spirits and bring joy to those around her. Whether it was through a kind word, a gentle touch, or simply her presence Suzanne had a way of making everyone feel valued and loved. I am honored to have had her as my baby sister. She was the greatest gift my mother could ever give me. She will be forever in my heart.

“ Today I bid farewell to Ms. Suzanne Elizabeth Harris. What we truly lost down here on earth is heavens gain now. First, with my deepest sympathies and condolences to the Harris Family. I want to extend my deepest gratitude for all the people she reached with her spirit. With an infectious smile, curiosity, love for life and everything in it. I want you all to know during this home sending. That Suzanne was the closet living embodiment of Tinkerbell. Light as the wind, sparkles of angel dust all around her. Held a magic and pageantry all her own. You will certainly be missed. So at least now I know you shall have your wings amongst the other angels in heaven. May they carry you onward to look among those who will remember you fondly down here on earth.

~Sincerely,
Carnell Terry

“ Suzie was a beautiful light in our lives. She had the most sweetest, bubbly personality. I have a lot of fond memories of Suzie. I remember when she came and met our family for the holidays and brought a jar with tabs to write down what one was grateful for each day. She was such a beautiful soul and I feel so blessed to have known her. I know she was a beautiful light in my brothers life. Our family loved Suzie so much and we will miss her dearly. RIP sweet beautiful girl

“ I met Suzie at a wedding. I remember when she walked in, the room had somehow started to glow brighter. She sat next to me and we chatted away about our love for dogs. She made my uncle rob smile in ways others couldn't. I truly was the most happiest for these two and glad she showed my uncle the true meaning of love. She is also the only reason i have my sweet Pomeranian Percy and will serve as a reminder daily. Rest in peace beautiful angel girl. We love you so much!
