“ Dear schick Family, I was saddened to read of your loss and I'd like to extend my deepest sympathy for your dearly loved .I can only imagine the pain you must feel. I pray that you can find hope in the Bible. Jesus Christ, thru God?s Kingdom, His Word, the Bible, gives us a hope that includes seeing the resurrection of our dead loved ones. (Luke 23:43; John 5:28, 29)) ~ Hope this comforts you like it has my family during loss.

“ Andrew is an Afghanistan and when he was told of the passing of Aunt sue he was saddened. He is sorry that he cannot be there and he has some nice memories as a child knowing her and then when his first daughter was born he made sure that he went over to visit. He stopped over every time he was in town. You are in his thoughts and prayers and he wanted you to know this.. I was asked to pass this on to you. God bless you in all that you do. Mary rodocker cloyd this was done at his request..:(

“ The first members of the family who Bern wanted me to meet when we began dating were Sue and Gerry. In those penniless days, we spent many Saturday nights together playing cards, laughing and having so much fun with the coolest couple we knew.

Sue was as beautiful as her mother and radiated warmth and generosity. Our lives were sweetened by her human grace.

It's just the closing of the circle. Beginning and ending are holding hands once more.

“ Aunt Sue was good to me and I recall spending the night many times in my youth, we had a great time as I remember it! I always heard how i was a busy lil girl and one time we were at grandma and grandpas and someone was taking movies. well, this one time.. here is aunt sue getting ready to go out and after she left they turned this 2 yr old child loose in her room, that girl was me and from what I remember seeing in the home movies, i had a wonderful time then also! She on the other hand did not find it as funny as those in on the gag! She was wise and gave me good advice long long ago and to this day I still remember and do as she suggested. My parents divorced and we lost track of the family I loved and needed so much but the Lord put us back together for a what seems to be a short period of time and I appreciate the time we shared, the laughter and the many memories. I wish I had as many memories with my cousins but at least the memories i have with them are good ones! we must remember.. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.. You will be missed, you will always be loved and I know one day we shall be together and all the heartache over the years will be forgotten, all tears will be wiped away and we shall live in a kingdom where the light of the Lord will shine forever and we shall be happy and together serving our Heavenly father side by side. I am sorry that my family must go through this, my prayers have always included you I pray that this can draw us together as we are what is left.. May God bless you in ALL that you do, Lynn, Steve, Elaine, Kathy (Cathy not sure)
