“ Tammy was innately a kind and caring person. She was indeed a consummate teacher and mentor. When I switched from clinical patient care to coding, she readily connected with me and patiently made my transition so much easier. She played a pivotal role contributing to my success as a medical coder and I'm so glad I told her that several times over the past 17 years. This world has truly lost a treasure. Sending my sincerest and deepest condolences to Mr. and Mrs. Ingalls, Dylan, the Berger Family and all who loved her as I did.

“ *Tammy,
I never told you this, but I've always admired you..looking back now on all of the beautiful, hilarious, tearful and all around fun memories we've shared, I see now that you were my own little personal mentor too. You guided me and lifted me up too many times too count. You were there for me and my little family whenever something popped up or happened. Never hesitated. You'd just say, "don't be silly, I'm on my way" or "what time are you dropping off my little man?!". I miss you terribly (but I know you'd tell me to shut up and stop being silly lol) and tomorrow is going to be hard, but I know you'll already be at the door welcoming everyone in. Dance in the clouds for me, girl.*

“ This was a message I shared with Tammy not too long ago with her response as well. She will be missed so so much. Prayers for her family in knowing that she has impacted lives a great deal and will always be remembered for that...Fly High Tammy...Thank you for always letting me vent to you on my bad days...

Tammy,

I just wanted to send you a quick message and thank you for everything you do. I love that you are so easy to work with and you are so much like me and so passionate about the students. Anytime I reach out to you, you are quick to respond and you do what needs to be done in order to make the student successful. I can't say enough good things about you. The work you do is so important. I mean we are changing lives. It doesn't get any better than that. Ross is so lucky to have an instructor like you and I mean that wholeheartedly. You definitely stand out....

Heather,

*Thank you, that means a lot. You have me getting teary eyed. It means a lot to hear this from you. We are changing lives. If I change one out of 100 it's worth it.
I enjoy working with you! And our students.*

I have known Tammy throughout my long career at Henry Ford but never had the pleasure of working directly with her. I did, however, benefit from her kindness in many ways. She was a force and so giving. On my last day after making the difficult decision to move on, she approached me, telling me how sorry she was I had to go and how she had been thinking about me. She gave me a big hug and her huge, warm smile. I didn't know she even knew I was leaving, let alone how hard it was to go. I will never forget that moment; that gift. Or how we danced like crazy people at the Christmas party. I am heartbroken for her family and I pray for God's grace and comfort to all of you as you journey through this terrible time.

“ To the family and friends of Tammy B.,

Tammy was the best manager/boss I have ever had in my 22 years in health care. She was a positive bright cheery light every morning when I'd check my email. She had a way of putting a positive spin on everything she could- even the pandemic. She was strong and upbeat during a time where many of us were getting burned out. I know tomorrow is promised to no man or woman, but to know that she is gone from this place now, leaves a hole. I will not forget what a sweet, thoughtful and brilliant person Tammy was to all of us on team Henry. See you on the other side.

“ Words cannot begin to express the sorrow i have for the passing of Tammy. I will always remember how her face would light up when she would talk about her boys, her Josh, her parents, her pups, her soon to be daughter in law. Her family was everything to her. Her home family and professional. I will forever hold the memory of our weekly BucharestGrill Tuesday lunches, love of thirtyone bags, sunflowers, wine, thrift shopping, psychic readings, but mostly your genuine friendship and support through all of our life’s ups and downs. I Will remember all the pen throwing, lip quivering, laughing til we cry moments. You always made me feel you had more confidence in me than i did in myself. I take you forever in my heart.
