“ Dear Judie & Family,

We were so sorry to hear of Terry's passing. I remember all the good times we had growing up together and hanging out in Lakewood Park. While we haven't seen Terry in many years since moving away, we always remember his cheerful, and friendly personality. We will remember you and your Family in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Judy, we were shocked to hear about your loss. Just the other day we were talking about Terry. He and Bruce spent way too many days and nights together. And Terry was in our wedding in 1971. We are very sorry for your family's loss.

“ I am so sorry for your loss...I can remember the gatherings at Aunt Ginny's and the light that Terry created there. He will surely be missed by us, but he is greeted by our loved family that embraces and rejoices in his arrival...and May that bring comfort and peace.
Love to you-Patsy (Hudson) Campbell
