“ And the Lord said " Thelma girl, it's time to come home,you have fought many battles and won many,in that war of life on earth,now it's time to rest". I could write a book. We (Jack and I) had so many awesome times with her and Ray. Memories that will fill my heart forever. I love you like my "Sista"!! Love Hugs and Prayers to Ray and the Heathcott Family.

“ Love and Hugs to Ray and all of Thelma's family. We are so sorry for your loss.

I would like to share a memory that was fun for us all. We were blessed to enjoy her company and companionship through Dick and Kay. We had many get togethers while camping up North and afternoons spent together. I am attaching a photo taken during one of those times. We all met for lunch in Clio and when we left the restaurant Thelma took we girls back in her car. We had one hair raising ride down Vienna road! What fun....she enjoyed showing us how fast it could go! A memory to treasure.
