

Theresa Michaline Marlinga Eichbauer

September 5, 2022

Theresa Michaline Marlinga Eichbauer passed on Monday, September 5, 2022, Cape Coral, Florida. Born September 28, 1927. Preceded in death by her parents Anna and Stephen Marlinga, husband, Norby Keith Eichbauer, son, Patrick Eichbauer, grandson, Bryan Martins and all 7 siblings. Survived by four children: Leonard Eichbauer, Kenneth (Paula) Eichbauer, Cindy Martins and Kevin (Terri) Eichbauer; grandchildren: Stacy (Scott) Servay, Rebecca (Kevin) O'Connor, Jeffrey Eichbauer, Heidi Eichbauer, Paul (Melody) Eichbauer, Victoria Eichbauer, Kyle Eichbauer, Ashley (Joel) Newman, Valerie Martins, Aaron Eichbauer, & Elisa (Ryan) McClintock, great grandchildren: Alex Gill, Brendan Servay, Brayden Wojciechowski, Oliver Newman, Luke, Cooper, & Madeline McClintock. Theresa sewed parachutes at the old Briggs factory during WWII prior to her marriage to Norby who was in the Pacific theater. Later she worked for her brother in his party store and then Myers Meat Market while raising the children. She and her husband traveled to Hawaii, the Rose Bowl and enjoyed their cottage at Lake Huron over the years with family and friends. After her husband's passing, she enjoyed traveling with family members, especially her sisters, to Alaska, Poland and on many cruises. As her granddaughter stated, family traditions and faith were most important to her and characteristics she passed on to her children and grandchildren. Theresa was a member of St. Clement Parish in Centerline while she and her husband raised their family in Warren and then St. Andrews Catholic Church in Cape Coral, FL after her move to FL in 2003.
