“ My Uncle Tom Reditus was the best Uncle I had of all. Some memories his attempts at combing his 'bald' head with the comb I gave him for Christmas as a very small child ...! making us all laugh ... his searching for ice skates (& finding) for me to skate at a big outdoor rink up in Detroit, MI when i came up for a visit as a senior in hs for Thanksgiving ... loved being up there with him, Auntie Rose & family so much, that I spent my Dunkin' Donut job $$ and went back AGAIN, for Christmas!! - he took me for the first time ever tobogganning ... to Tigers' baseball game ... etc. Taught me the 'proper' way to butter a nut roll.! I recall when he & family visited mine in Atlanta, how he would scrub & scrub w/Lava soap to get the mechanics grease out from his fingernails .. To his wonderful sense of humor, kindness and generosity. I can't pass someone on the side of the road needing help w/o thinking of him, as he always stopped to help people. I loved him so very, very much. I'm very very sad at his passing, but also glad to know he lived a happy long life, and passed peacefully in his sleep. I'll never forget him. Much love to everyone, Cynthia

“ My dad was the best. He was a holy man of God...generous, patient, kind, gentle. On his 90th birthday I wrote him this poem which I believe captures the essence of his soul.

Because...

of how you have chosen to live your life, you have enriched mine.

your life is rooted in His love, you have generously given yours.

you desired to be a Father like Him, I have been blessed to call you Dad.

being that Father is never easy, I apologize for the pain I have caused.

through you I have been taught compassion, and shown mercy.

you listen more than you talk, you preach humility through your actions.

without your guiding hand, I would not be the person I am today.

the wisdom of your days was evident long ago, many have become wiser.

you have modeled a life of service I will care for you the rest of your days!

I have shared fifty years of your ninety, I will thank Him the rest of my life!

I love and miss you dad!!
