“ As I approach the anniversary of Tony's passing I've reflected on our time together! I walk my dog every night and on many of them I pass by our childhood homes and places we frequently went! There is a small hill by the apartments we lived by. On one night Tony and I fell asleep on it watching the stars. When I awoke I realized that it was near daylight and I was way past my curfew, so I went home. It never occurred to me to wake him. I don't know why! Tony woke when it began to rain a short time later and realized I was gone. He was past curfew as well and in trouble. He asked me why I didn't wake him up the next day and I had no answer so for years we would always talk about the time I left him on the hill. I always imagined him waking up on that hill in the morning in the rain all alone. It turned out to be a memory that will last forever because we laughed about it for years! I still go to the hill with him in my heart! I love and miss him, my friend, my brother, Tony!

*Still loving you,
Steve St-Louis*

“ My deepest condolences goes out to the entire Mangov family! I feel so sorry for our loss and will be sharing some of the many memories I've had the pleasure of having with Tony since childhood. While we grieve all in our own way, may God give us all strength! Tony watched over me and helped me through difficult times over the years! He was a brother to me and has taken a big piece of my heart with him! As we get older, we realize that time goes by fast, so we'll be seeing you soon, until then I will be forever missing you Tony!

*My love & prayers,
Steve St-Louis*
