“ There is a lot to share about you Mom. I miss our Bingo outings and talking about your childhood. I miss our giggles and cooking sessions. Thank you for being my Mom. Thank you for putting up with my shenanigans. Mostly thank you for the love, patience, kindness, love, and your gentle hands. You always knew when to brush the hair out of my eyes.

Vera was my neighbor for 8 years. She was so good to my son, Dwayne and I loved her even more for that. She was a kind and loving person who accepted everyone for who they were. She raised the nicest children. It was a joy knowing her and being her neighbor for those 8 short years. My love to all her children.
